第一节（共4小题；第40、41题各2分，第42题3分，第43题5分，共12分）

40. They can put all devices out of sight while studying and build a solid timetable.

41. Because thinking about food frequently can disturb studying or cause them/a student to miss part of the class.

42. To avoid being disturbed by background noises, students could sit in a silent environment or wear a pair of headphones.

According to the passage, sitting in a silent environment often emphasizes background noises even more.

43. With online learning, I enjoy more flexibility in rearranging courses and completing tasks. It also allows me to learn at my own pace. For instance, I can start and pause the video when it suits me to ensure that I've really mastered the material.

第二节（20分）

范文：

Dear Jim,

Thank you very much indeed for the wonderful lecture you gave on reading methods. I've learnt really a lot, because you helped me overcome the bottleneck of my reading—how to increase the reading speed.

However, I am still puzzled by some difficulties in reading. For example, I find it hard to grasp the gist of the passages, and I also feel it hard to continue reading when confronted with new words. What can I do? Would you please give me some advice? I would be really grateful if you could help me out.

Thank you very much again. Your earliest reply would be appreciated.

Yours,

Li hua
