Dear Jim.

How is everything going? In order to help the students study English well, our class is going to hold an on-line activity next week. Now I am writing to invite you to join us.

This activity will be held at 2 p.m. on Tencent Meeting next Monday. First, our English teacher will give us a lecture on grammar and vocabulary study. Then it will be your turn to offer some suggestions on how to be polite in English. At last, there will be a question-and-answer session.

This activity will last for about 2 hours and you have about half an hour on your topic. So make sure you will be available then. Also, don't forget to download a Tencent Meeting app in advance!

Really hope you can attend it and give us some help. Looking forward to your early r
